

Aurelia Mitchell Durant, Philadelphia native and graduate of Temple University and Rutgers University School of Law is a leading legal adviser and commentator, specializing in international business law, corporate law, internet law and intellectual property law. She has been speaking and practicing for over 20 years, teaching and educating her clients while keeping them up to date with constant legal changes that could affect sustainability of their business or charitable pursuits.

As a consultative attorney, Aurelia covers topics such as international business, intellectual property, entertainment, and corporate law matters to the establishment of private foundations, corporate compliance, and public disclosure. She works hard to help individuals and organizations secure their company's names, products and services through education about the importance of brand protection in the global marketplace.

Aurelia conducts seminars, workshops and presentations for entrepreneurs, artists, CEOs, consultants, accountants, and board members about brand protection and retention, trusts, charities and foundations development and maintenance, legal obligations, regulatory compliance, international business, corporate compliance, fundraising, tax obligations, and public disclosure. She is a workshop presenter with audiences ranging from solopreneurs to small businesses to Fortune 500 executives. During these seminars, she addresses legal issues such as international trade, international business, international intellectual property, and corporate concerns. Aurelia is also a college professor, teaching courses on Business Law, International Business and Political Science.

Ms. Mitchell Durant has served on the board of directors of several national organizations, leading to the successful development of fundraising initiatives and corporate governance policies and procedures. She served as President and General Counsel for KDBM

International and guided KDBM International through a successful merger with the Lucentra Corporation where she assumed the role as Lucentra's Director of New Business Development and General Counsel.

Aurelia gives businesses vital tools increase revenue, expand their marketplace, and diversify their products. She is also an international business consultant, designing and presenting international trade and international business curriculum. Aurelia is also the Founder of AMD LAW. At AMD LAW, Aurelia managed a staff of attorneys and legal professionals in assisting clients in protecting their intellectual property interests and monitoring trade disputes, internet law, market accessibility, and domestic and international general import and export compliance. Now, Aurelia serves AMD LAW in its new business development efforts.

It is through her innovation, creativity, and dedication that Aurelia Mitchell Durant is able to perfectly meet the needs of her clients, assisting them in the protection and expansion of their businesses, internationally. Her extensive knowledge, dedication, and passion for protecting the intellectual property and facilitating the international business pursuits of her clients are what set her apart from others within the field. Aurelia is a sought after professional speaker and legal correspondent who would undoubtedly bring a fresh, new perspective to your event or program.

To get more information about Aurelia Mitchell Durant, visit www.aureliamitchelldurant.com or send an email.